MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 90

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2022 series for most Cambridge IGCSE, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 6 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

General Note: In all cases reasonable alternative answers which are not specifically mentioned in the marking scheme will be accepted, and either some of the marks or all of the marks for that question will be awarded. Candidates may use upper or lower case initial letters for transliterating Sanskrit proper nouns. By 'construal' is meant understanding the overall meaning of the words as a sentence and conveying this in the English translation.
1	Mahābhārata Story 1
1(a)	Śibi [1]	1
1(b)	'The vulture will eat [1] me [1]' the pigeon said [1].' [1 mark for construal]	4
1(c)	He said 'I shall protect [1] you [1]'.	2
1(d)	'Therefore give [1] your flesh [1].' [1 mark for construal]	3
1(e)	You are the best king [1] in the world [1].	2
1(f)	The story teaches duty [1] and self-sacrifice [1] in that the king protects his subjects and provides for them [1].	3

2	Bhagavad Gītā. Ch 3 v 21; Ch 4 v 10; Ch 18 v 53
2(a)	Arjuna is the best warrior [1] so if he refuses to fight, others will follow [1].	2
2(b)	'Freed from passion, fear and anger [1], at one with Me, relying on Me [1], many purified [1] by the fire of wisdom [1] have attained My state of being [1].' [1 mark for construal]	6
2(c)	Any four of: egoism, force, conceit, desire, anger, claim on property [4].	4	Accept, for example, 'covetousness' for 'claim on property'.
2(d)	1 to 3 marks awarded for a reasoned response. For example: I think this is really speaking about becoming free from limiting ideas [1] and regaining our true nature [1]. This would be a desirable outcome, as one becomes 'peaceful' as said in line 6 [1].	3	In my view 'becoming Brahman' is not desirable, as one loses identity [1] as 'nirmama' suggests [1]. This idea of becoming peaceful is unrealistic in the modern age [1].
