Paper 2 Reading Passages (Extended)

October/November 2018

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 50

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2018 series for most Cambridge IGCSE™, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 12 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

Question	Answer	Marks
1	This question tests reading assessment objectives R1 to R3 (15 marks) R1 demonstrate understanding of explicit meanings R2 demonstrate understanding of implicit meanings and attitudes R3 analyse, evaluate and develop facts, ideas and opinions and writing assessment objectives W1 to W4 (5 marks) W1 articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined W2 sequence facts, ideas and opinions W3 use a range of appropriate vocabulary W4 use register appropriate to audience and context
	You are Mikaela from Passage A. Write your diary entry for the day's events. In your diary entry you should include your thoughts and feelings about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • what you and Jane did during the morning • what happened after Jane returned and later that evening • your relationship with Jane and Niki. Base your diary entry on what you have read in Passage A, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points. Begin the diary entry, 'Dear Diary, Today has been quite eventful ...' Write about 250 to 350 words. Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.	20
	General notes Candidates should select ideas from the passage and develop them relevantly, supporting what they write with details from the passage. Look for an appropriate register for the genre, and a clear and balanced response which covers the three areas of the question, is well sequenced, and is in the candidate's own words.

Question	Answer	Marks
1	Responses might use the following ideas: A1: what you and Jane did during the morning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mikaela waited (det. stayed in the house) [dev. seemed to be waiting a long time, over-joyed when she returned] • Mikaela watched people (det. drawing stick-people on the window) [dev. bored, wishes she could socialise, envies their freedom] • problem operating wheelchair (det. control not working on chair, just whirred) [dev. frustrated] • Jane went to the market (det. buying groceries, enjoyed shopping) [dev. might be distracted by other stalls, hurried back] • Jane helped Niki on stall (det. busy setting up) [dev. liked him] • expected visit from doctor (det. cough, tight chest, weak; doctor coming tomorrow) [dev. recovery] A2: what happened after Jane returned <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jane offered to cook (det. potato and onion soup) [dev. enjoys watching her] • moved into kitchen (det. chair tilted on back wheels) [dev. felt involved] • played cards (det. after eating) [dev. regular pastime] • chatted about morning at market (det. soap stalls, colourful clothing) [dev. assault on the senses, possible threat] • Niki's visit (det. that evening) [dev. often pops in, pleased to see him, brought gift for Jane] A3: your relationship with Jane and Niki Jane <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • family (det. Granddaughter) [dev. appreciates her help, considerate] • companionship (det. does not take long at the market) [dev. worries how relationship might change, feels guilty about taking her time] • practical help (det. shops each week, doctor's appointment) [dev. hard work, depends on her] Niki <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • friend (det. asks how she is, sends freshest ingredients) [dev. concerned about her health] • does odd jobs (det. tried/offered to repair wheelchair) [dev. grateful] • emotional support for Jane (det. kind smile) [dev. hopes for their future, potential romance]

Marking Criteria for Question 1

Table A, Reading:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Reading.

Band 1	13–15	The response reveals a thorough reading of the passage. A wide range of ideas is applied. There is sustained use of supporting detail, which is well integrated into the response, contributing to a strong sense of purpose and approach. Developed ideas are well related to the passage. All three bullets are well covered.
Band 2	10–12	There is evidence of a competent reading of the passage. Some ideas are developed, but the ability to sustain them may not be consistent. There is frequent supporting detail. The response answers all three bullets, though perhaps not equally well.
Band 3	7–9	The passage has been read reasonably well , but the response may not reflect the range or complexity of ideas in the original. There may be some mechanical use of the passage. Supporting detail is used occasionally. Opportunities for development are rarely taken and ideas are simply expressed. There is uneven focus on the bullets.
Band 4	4–6	Some brief, straightforward reference to the passage is made. There is some evidence of general understanding of the main ideas, although the response may be thin or in places lack focus on the passage or the question. One of the bullets may not be addressed.
Band 5	1–3	The response is either very general, with little reference to the passage or the question, or a reproduction of sections of the original. Content is insubstantial, or there is little realisation of the need to modify material from the passage.
Band 6	0	There is very little or no relevance to the question or to the passage, or the response copies unselectively or directly from the passage.

Table B, Writing: Structure and order, style of language
Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1	5	The language of the response sounds convincing and consistently appropriate. Ideas are firmly expressed in a wide range of effective and/or interesting language. Structure and sequence are sound throughout.
Band 2	4	Language is mostly fluent and there is clarity of expression. There is a sufficient range of vocabulary to express ideas with subtlety and precision. The response is mainly well structured and well sequenced.
Band 3	3	Language is clear but comparatively plain and/or factual, expressing little opinion. Ideas are rarely extended, but explanations are adequate. Some sections are quite well sequenced but there may be flaws in structure.
Band 4	2	There may be some awkwardness of expression and some inconsistency of style. Language is too limited to express shades of meaning. There is structural weakness and there may be some copying from the passage.
Band 5	1	Expression and structure lacks clarity. Language is weak and undeveloped. There is very little attempt to explain ideas. There may be frequent copying from the original.
Band 6	0	The response cannot be understood.

Question	Answer	Marks
	Re-read the descriptions of: (a) the world outside Mikaela’s window in paragraph 1, beginning ‘Mikaela watched the world pass by ...’ (b) the scene at the market in paragraph 4, beginning ‘Ahead, the market was beginning to wake up ...’ Select four powerful words or phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase selected is used effectively in the context. Write about 200 to 300 words. Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.	10
	General notes This question is marked for the ability to select powerful or unusual words and for an understanding of ways in which the language is effective. Expect responses to provide words that carry connotations additional to general meaning. Mark holistically for the overall quality of the response, not for the number of words chosen, bearing in mind that there should be a range of choices to demonstrate an understanding of how language works for the higher bands, and that this should include the ability to explain images. It is the quality of the analysis that attracts marks. Do not take marks off for inaccurate statements; simply ignore them. The following notes are a guide to what good responses might say about the selections. They can make any sensible comment, but only credit those that are relevant to the correct meanings of the words in the context and that have some validity. Alternative acceptable explanations should be credited. Credit comments on effects created by non-vocabulary choices such as grammar/syntax and punctuation devices. They must be additional to comments on vocabulary.

Question	Answer	Marks
2	(a) The world outside Mikaela’s window The general effect is to emphasise Mikaela’s feelings of loneliness and exclusion. watched the world pass by the window (image): observes people outside, as if excluded from everyone else on the planet; cinematic panorama, spectator liberated pedestrians: free to walk, Mikaela’s desire to be like them/free of current restrictions drawn into a current (image): pulled in one direction together, swept along like a body of water, irresistible force bags bounced and bounded behind them: bumping along the uneven ground, leaping up and down, childlike exuberance, excited, animated, carefree (in) enthusiastic obedience (image): wheeled shopping bags follow like pets on a leash, Mikaela’s own wish that she wasn’t restricted. a sea of movement (image): a large body of people walking purposefully in the same direction, force, tide, overwhelming numbers that belong to the world she can’t join and which have left her behind. imprisoned figure (in the window) (image): no-one raised their eyes /moved their heads in her direction, do not think about her, abandoned, captive, character in a fairy-tale
	(b) The scene at the market The general effect is that a visit to the market is an assault to the senses – exciting and potentially dangerous. the market was beginning to wake up (image): starting the day, signs of activity, gaining consciousness like a large beast (image): huge creature, impressive size of market, monstrous, dangerous, dragon, mythical groaning in dismay at being prodded into life (image): mix of low, deep sounds of the stalls and awnings being erected, hard work, effort, difficulty elongated body undulating and rippling (image): line of awnings stretching into the distance, billowing motion, wavelike fluttering (awnings and canvas covers): quick light movements, winged creature (metal trollies) squealed in angry protest (image): high pitched noise of grinding metal wheels, rebelling, apparent hostility, resistance to work careered crazily: uncoordinated, fast headlong dash, out of control, chaotic butted up against the stalls: reached a dead end, come to a final halt disgorged their contents (image): poured out goods inside, vomiting slipping and sliding across shiny surfaces: skidding, uncontrolled movement

Table A, Reading: Language analysis:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

Band 1	9–10	Wide-ranging and closely-focused discussion of language with some high quality comments that add associations to words in both parts of the question, and demonstrate the writer's reasons for using them. Tackles imagery with some precision and imagination. There is clear evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 2	7–8	Explanations are given of appropriately selected words and phrases, and effects are identified in both parts of the question. Images are recognised as such and the response goes some way to explaining them. There is some evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 3	5–6	A satisfactory attempt is made to identify appropriate words and phrases. The response mostly gives meanings of words and any attempt to suggest and explain effects is basic, vague or very general. One half of the question may be better answered than the other.
Band 4	3–4	The response provides a mixture of appropriate choices and words that communicate less well. The response may correctly identify linguistic or literary devices but not explain why they are used. Explanations of meaning may be few, general, slight or only partially effective. They may repeat the language of the original or do not refer to specific words.
Band 5	1–2	The choice of words is insufficient or rarely relevant. Any comments are inappropriate and the response is very thin.
Band 6	0	The response does not relate to the question. Inappropriate words and phrases are chosen or none are selected.

Question	Answer	Marks
3	Question 3 This question tests reading assessment objectives R1, R2 and R5 (15 marks) R1 demonstrate understanding of explicit meanings R2 demonstrate understanding of implicit meanings and attitudes R5 select for specific purposes and writing assessment objectives W1 to W3 (5 marks) W1 articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined W2 sequence facts, ideas and opinions W3 use a range of appropriate vocabulary
3(a)	Notes According to Passage B, what does this grandfather wish for his grandchildren in their future lives? Write your answer using short notes. Write one point per line. You do not need to use your own words. Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer. This grandfather’s wishes for his grandchildren in their future lives:	15

Question	Answer	Marks
3(a)	Reading content for Question 3(a) Give 1 mark per point listed below, up to a maximum of 15. What the grandfather wishes for his grandchildren in their future lives. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 tranquillity / calmness / stillness 2 watch and listen / observe what is around 3 appreciate technology 4 embrace what is new / adapt (and change) 5 reflect / think deeply 6 judgement / know what is important / ability to discern 7 fulfilment / wealth of the mind 8 appreciate what you possess / think yourself lucky / rejoice in good fortune 9 education (allow example) 10 material wealth 11 (be) broad-minded 12 critical thinking 13 meet different people / learn about different cultures / tolerance (of other cultures) 14 happiness in relationships (of the heart) 15 show kindness / show respect / never inflict misery 16 make setback(s) a positive learning experience/ learn from negative experience(s) 17 resilience 18 enjoy youth Although lifting of words and phrases from the passage is acceptable, candidates should show evidence of understanding and selection by clearly focusing on the key details. Over-lengthy lifting (e.g. of whole sections containing a number of points) should not be credited. Where errors of grammar / spelling seriously affect the accuracy of an idea, the point should not be awarded.

Question	Answer	Marks
3(b)	(b) Summary Now use your notes from Question 3(a) to write a summary of what this grandfather wishes for his grandchildren in their future lives, according to Passage B. You must use continuous writing (not note form) and use your own words as far as possible. Your summary should include all 15 of your points in Question 3(a) and must be 200 to 250 words. Up to 5 marks are available for the quality of your answer.	5

B Quality of Writing: concision, focus and use of own words
Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1	5	The response is well focused on the passage and the question. All points are expressed clearly, concisely and fluently, and in the candidate's own words (where appropriate) throughout.
Band 2	4	Most points are made clearly and concisely. Own words (where appropriate) are used consistently. The summary is mostly focused but may have a redundant introduction or conclusion.
Band 3	3	There are some areas of concision. There may be occasional loss of focus or clarity. Own words (where appropriate) are used for most of the summary. Responses may be list-like or not well sequenced.
Band 4	2	The summary is sometimes focused. It may lack some clarity. It may include comment, repetition, unnecessarily long explanation or lifted phrases.
Band 5	1	The summary is unfocused or wordy. It may be answered in the wrong form (e.g. narrative, commentary or as notes) or lack clarity. There may be frequent lifting of phrases and sentences.
Band 6	0	Excessive lifting; no focus. The response cannot be understood or consists entirely of the words of the passage.
