Section A

- 1 Describe the rules which apply to establishing a duty of care for a negligent misstatement. Assess the extent to which the rules are too restrictive. [25]
- 2 Describe the equitable remedies available in tort. Assess the extent to which these remedies achieve justice for claimants. [25]
- 3 Describe the elements of the rule in Rylands v Fletcher and assess whether this tort is still necessary given the range of alternative actions available. [25]

Section B

- 4 Blaise has been renovating his house and wants to show his friend, Andre, how much work he has done. He invites Andre to pay him a visit. When Andre arrives at the house he knocks on the door but Blaise does not respond. Andre finds that the door is unlocked so he enters the house and calls to Blaise. He then goes out to the back of the house, where he sees a ladder leading to the roof. Andre climbs the ladder to check if Blaise is working on the roof. As he climbs, the ladder slides away from the wall. He falls to the ground and sustains a broken arm.

Advise the parties as to their rights and responsibilities in relation to occupier's liability. [25]

- 5 Camila spends a lot of time working in her garden, growing a variety of flowers and vegetables. Recently her neighbour, Devon, has acquired a drone (an unmanned aerial vehicle) and he frequently flies it in his garden.

On a number of occasions, the drone flies over Camila's garden. Devon apologises and explains that it was unintentional and that he is still learning how to operate the drone. Subsequently, the drone crashes in Camila's garden, damaging some flowers. As Camila is not at home at the time, Devon climbs over the fence to retrieve the drone.

Advise the parties as to their rights, responsibilities and remedies in relation to trespass to land. [25]

- 6 Ebrahim has recently decided that it would be quicker to cycle to work rather than drive. He has purchased a bicycle and a cycling helmet. Local bylaws require cyclists to wear a helmet, but he has not been doing so as he finds it uncomfortable.

One morning Ebrahim is late for work and is cycling as fast as he can in order to be on time for a 09:00 meeting. He cycles between two lines of cars waiting at traffic lights. Fay is a passenger in one of the stationary cars and decides to walk the remainder of her journey. Fay suddenly opens the car door just as Ebrahim cycles by, knocking him off his bicycle. Ebrahim sustains a serious head injury and the bicycle is badly damaged when it slides under another vehicle.

Advise the parties as to their rights, responsibilities and remedies in relation to negligence. [25]
