Paper 1 Reading Passages (Core)

May/June 2017

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 50

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2017 series for most Cambridge IGCSE[®], Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

Note 1: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Note 2: Words underlined in the answers to the questions are required for the full mark(s) to be awarded.

For the summary question, be careful not to award the same point twice; where an answer/idea is repeated you may indicate by using the REP (repeat) annotation.

Question	Answer	Marks	Notes
Explain how the words and language in each of the phrases in (h)(i) help to suggest how the writer presents the story of El Dorado.
Notes on the Task <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examiners should observe the following principles when assessing candidates' responses to this question: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Question 1 (h) (ii) requires a comment on the effectiveness of the writer's use of language for a particular purpose in the whole phrase quoted. • Credit should be given to responses that attempt to explain how the writer's choice of words/images etc. produces the intended response in the reader's mind. • When marking these responses, we are looking for evidence that candidates have some appreciation of the appropriate associations and suggestions in the writer's choice of words. • There are, therefore, no specific right or wrong answers to this task. We should award marks on the quality of linguistic analysis shown by the candidate in order to support her/his interpretation of the writer's purpose. • It is not necessary for candidates to show knowledge of the names of different figures of speech (simile, metaphor etc.) to produce a successful answer - what we are looking for is an understanding of how the writer uses any such literary devices. • Remember that 2 is the maximum mark for any one explanation and that candidates are likely to comment on each phrase in one or two lines only. This fact should be borne in mind when applying the descriptors in the table below.
Note: This question is marked out of a total of 6 (2 marks for explanation of each phrase). However, it is fully acceptable to award a holistic mark for this question (e.g. a maximum of 5 out of 6) especially when a partial understanding of the effects of some of the chosen phrases is implied.
2 marks	There will be a secure understanding of the phrase and of the writer's purpose for choosing the language used in it. There will be an appreciation of how the suggestions and associations of the vocabulary/imagery used contribute to the writer's purpose and a convincing attempt to explain how this effect is achieved. Note: 2 marks can be awarded to a response that contains an interpretation different from that anticipated if there is a convincing explanation given.
1 mark	Responses gaining 1 mark will show understanding of the phrase as a whole and show some awareness of the writer's purpose for choosing the language used in it. However, this is likely to be only partially explained and an awareness of how this is achieved is likely to be implied rather than specifically explained.
0 marks	Responses gaining 0 marks will either show complete misunderstanding of the phrase or simply list the figure(s) of speech used by the writer without further comment.

Question	Answer	Marks	Notes
1(h)(ii)	The word 'embellish' suggests that unsubstantiated details have been added to accounts to make them more attractive and interesting. The word 'assumed' implies that there is no evidence for the existence of El Dorado; its description of being a 'fugitive empire' implies that it can never be found and the sense of disbelief is reinforced by the slightly dismissive tone of 'flourishing somewhere'. 'Fabulous' suggests that the wealth is unrealistic and the rest of the quotation suggests that El Dorado is really only found in the fictional writings produced by the whimsical minds of writers. All three quotations suggest that the writer doubts the existence of the place. Award up to 2 marks for each explanation to a maximum of 6.	6	Note: If candidates choose to comment on the phrase not selected for the previous question, do not penalise but mark as appropriate.

2	Table A, READING: Using and understanding the material Use the following bands to give a mark out of 10 for Reading. Band 1 [9–10 marks] Uses and develops several ideas, both factual and inferential, from the passage. There is a consistent and convincing account of Juan's experiences and a developed and appropriate explanation of why he should be believed. Band 2 [7–8 marks] Refers to several details from the passage and makes some convincing reference to Juan's experiences. Gives some credible, but there is likely to be an undeveloped explanation of why he should be believed. Band 3 [5–6 marks] Gives some details about Juan's experiences which may not be fully convincing. Shows some incomplete or limited attempt to explain why he should be believed. Focuses on the question and on the passage, but uses material simply and partially.	10	Note: response does not need to quote the questions, but response should clearly refer to each of the three aspects. Answers which omit one or more are unlikely to get above Band 3 for Reading.
2	Band 4 [3–4 marks] There is some relevance to the question with a

There is likely to be much irrelevant or inappropriate content. Band 5 [1–2 marks] There is an attempt to use the passage. May retell the passage or give occasional relevant facts. There may be misunderstanding or lack of clarity. Band 6 [0 marks] There is little or no relevance to the question or to the passage or the response copies unselectively or directly from the passage.

2	Table B, WRITING: Structure and order, style of language: Use the following bands to give a mark out of 5 for Writing Band 1 [5 marks] Sentences are fluent and there is a fairly wide range of vocabulary. Overall structure is good and sentences generally follow in sequence. An appropriate register is established. Band 2 [4 marks] Sentences are correct, though relatively simple. Vocabulary is adequate and correctly used. Structure is generally sound. Some of the register is appropriate. Band 3 [3 marks] Sentence structures and vocabulary are simple, but meaning is never in doubt. The order is reasonable. There may be an attempt at an appropriate register but it is inconsistent. Band 4 [2 marks] The response is very simply written and there are occasional examples of blurred meaning. The structure can usually be followed. The response may be over-dependent on lifted material. Band 5 [1 marks] The response is difficult to understand. The response may be almost entirely lifted from the original. Band 6 [0 marks] The response cannot be understood.	5
